I think we were both a little scared at first, but we have seen each other for years and finally we decided to record this one. MO: But there was not anything we could predict because this is something that happened after 10 years of work, it's something beyond logic. And it was like... now we are here, we have something here, you know? We have to see what it is, we don't want to give it away yet. CR: I do not believe in miracles, but I believe in songs. MO: If you do something good it is a miracle. For me, a miracle is that I am playing, that this work is happening. I am in the place where I am. That's what I call a miracle. * * * It's the morning of July 2. We're standing
